

SIXTH: It is my purpose and intention, as a perpetual memorial more especially for my wife, who has been crippled for many years, that the entire residue of my property and estate, of every kind, character and description, after the payment of the specific legacies hereinbefore mentioned, shall be utilized for the maintenance and operation of the said farm, and the 50 acres allotted thereto, as an institution or home for all crippled children, and it is my wish that the officers of the Corporation, to be known as The Charles L. and Nannie M. Renn Foundation, Inc., for Crippled Children, shall at all times use their best efforts to carry into effect the purpose and intention, hereinbefore mentioned, so that thereby there shall be fulfilled the wish of my wife, as well as my promise to her, that my estate shall be devoted and dedicated to the proper care, training, and maintenance of crippled children, at the Wallis Farm, aforesaid, the details, plans and requirements must of necessity be left largely to the officers of said corporation, who are hereby urged and requested to do their utmost to carry into effect our wishes and desires, as hereinbefore expressed.

SEVENTH: I hereby confer upon the Trustees hereinbefore mentioned all necessary power and authority to make such sales of my property and estate, except the Wallis Farm, aforesaid, as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this, my Last Will and Testament.

NINTH: In the event any part or all of the acreage intended for factory sites, under the conditions specified in sub-division (a) of the Fifth Paragraph herein, shall not be so used, then the same shall be sold or used by the Corporation, herein directed to be formed, whichever shall be better or more advantageous for the institution hereinbefore mentioned."
